A PERIODICAL WORTHY of the AGE.— STRINGER & TOWNSEND, Publishers and Booksellers. No. 222 Broadway, corner Annest., New-York, deire to invite the attention of the public and the trade to they will, early in April, commence the publication of the celebrated Glasgaw PRACTICAL MECHANICS'

It will appear simultaneously with its publication in Glasgaw. The well known reputation of this greatest of the mechanical and scientific Magazines almost obviates the ne-cessity of any description of its merits. It has long enjoyed the proud distinction of being the leading periodical of its kind in the world. The work is copiously embellished with designs, illustrative of the most recent discoveries in Science and Mechanics. Each number contains, in addition, from one to three large magnificent full sheet illustrations, on copper, explanative of its current text. Each number is a faithful pen and pencil reflex of the discoveries which have been made in Art, Sciences and Mechanics, since the issue which preceded it. This magnificent Periodical walks hand in hand, and step by step with Progress, in the broad avedescription can convey even a faint idea of its immeasurable superiority over every thing of its kind ever attempted. To be fairly appreciated, the work must be examined. The world's leading minds in Art, Science and Mechanics, are its principal contributors. Each monthly part contains an

Clare Moreland is truly a celebrated work. It has been running through the columns of "The Saturday Evening Poet," where it has been appearing for the last twelve weeks, and has proved itself to be one of the most popular works that has ever appeared in the columns of any newspaper in this country. Hefore it was half completed, the back numbers slathough Twelve Thousand extra of each number were printed, could not be obtained at any price, and the publishers of the Post were forced to issue a Supplement sheet of the first half of it for new subscribers to their paper, which induced the present publisher to make an arrangement with the popular author, to bring it out in a beautiful style for the thousands in this country that wish it in book form.

It is purely an American Book, and one of those interesting and beautiful American Stories, in which the publisher in ze antouncement feels it a pleasing duty to say one word of its popular author, the first and the first bull of the words "ever welcome guestain the comfortable cabin of the Western Woodsman, or at the parlor fiveside of the busy Town Merchant.

Chances for Business Alen.

A RARE CHANCE—The advertiser wishes A to find a man of good business capacity who can furnish a cash capital of from $3,000 to $3,000. The party furnishing the money can have undoubted security, and be placed in a good, respectable business which is paying a large profit annually. He would be located in New York.

A RARE CHANCE—The Business and Stock in trade of the old established Oil and Lamp Store, No. 519 Fearlet, doing a first rate trade, for sale on reasonable terms, as the proprietor has another business to attend to. Application to be made on the premises.

FOR CASH ONLY-The Furniture, Lease

and Good-will of a Boarding-Mouse, baving upward of 40 boarders, 30 rooms, and making from $35 to $30 per week. Location excellent. Address FORREST, Tribune Office.

HOTEL for SALE—Together with a Lease of 9 years, situated near the Crystal Palace, and now paying an annual interest of over 30 per cent. For full particulars apply to J. K. COOK, Jr., No. 79 Nassou-st. RON WORKS for SALE.—The Provi-dence Iron Company, to close a consern, offer for sale their very extensive and complete establishment for manu-facturing Iron, situated on tide water, at Fox Point, in Prov-idence.

These works have all been erected within seven years, are in good order, and ready to be put into immediate operation, and are equal to the production of 24 tuns of iron into plates and bars per day.

Connected with the above is a Wire Mill, capable of running 8 tuns of rods per day, for which there is a regular and increasing demand in Providence, at the present moment, at least equal to the entire production of the mill. Also, Raynoides, Patent Wrought Spike and Nail Machinea, which will turn out 10 tuns per day. Also a Cut Nail Mill, capable of turning out 10 to 170 casks per day, and which could be easily arranged to double that product.

As this establishment was built for use, no expense was spared in having everything about it of the most perfect kind, and the inventory exhibits as complete an establishment, perhaps, as is to be found in New England.

It is thought that no place in the United States presents a better opening for the successful prosecution, by a practical man, of the manufacture of wire road, from nails and spikes than the City of Providence, the center of a large and rapidly increasing manufacturing district, requiring for consumption the entire production of these works.

These works being on tide water, where the largest class of vessels which frequent our Bay can load and receive cargoes without lighterage, allows of their receiving their supplies of coal and iron at the lowest rate of freight; and labor can at all times be had on as good terms as elsewhere in New-England.

As it is supposed the purchaser would desire to examine the premises, further description is deemed unmocramy. The property will be sold cheap, and the terms of payment will be make easy.

If the above property is not previously sold, it will be effected to public auction, on WEDNESDAY, 11th May near, at 12 o'clock M.

For an examination of the property apply to W. H. HENDERSON, on the premises, and for terms as application at 12 o'clock M.

For an examination of the property apply to W. H. HENDERSON, on the premises, and for terms an application may be made to either of the subscribers in Providence.

HENRY L. KENDALL,
DANIEL PAINE. Providence, R. I., March 22, 1833.
